Historical Sketch

The College was founded 1894 and named in honor of Gen. Geo. R. Smith, the campus and grounds of 28 acres being the gift of daughters, Mmes Smith and Cotton. It is owned and conducted by the Freedmen's Aid Society. Is located on the M. K. & T. and Missouri Pacific railways.

The main building is of brick 120x40 feet, with an ell 75x40, four stories high. Contains 62 rooms including offices, parlors, recitation rooms, chapel, kitchen, dining room, laundry, dormitories for ladies and gentlemen, heated by steam.

Incorporation and Trustees

The Charter was issued Feb. 17th 1903. It makes the Trustees a body corporate, defines their power, prescribes manner of election and the relation of the Board to the Freedmen's Aid Society.

Work and Self-help.

A number of students boarding in the College permitted to earn some of their expenses by work in the building or on the grounds provided they are willing and efficient. Liberal pay is allowed for all work done, but employment will not be continued to those who fail to do their satisfactorily. Most students earn in this way $2 per month; some earn larger amounts. Application for work should be made to the President in advance of coming.

A large number of students find employment in homes in the city, sufficient to expenses of board and tuition. The call for young ladies for these positions is always greater than the supply. Application for such employment should be made in advance thru the President of the College.

As far as possible we endeavor to safeguard those working in the city, but cannot be fully responsible for those outside the college building. Only young men and women of established habits and character can be allowed this privilege of outside residence.

Children under twelve years of age will not be received, except special arrangements are made with the President.

Design and Scope of the College

The purpose of the College is to give a thorough, practical christian education. It cares for the health and physical training, provides for refined social culture, gives careful attention to morals and manners, and aims to lead the students to a personal religious faith and life.

Why the Republican Party Should be Successful in November

(By Frank A. Hendricks, New York, City)

Party of Expansion

The Republican party was founded on the principle that the government was established to protect the rights of every individual. That principle it has successfully maintained.

Through the Civil War it consecrated a reunited country to free and equal American citizenship. It has kept the channels of interstate commerce open for all and, through the National Banking System, the refunding of the National Debt, Resumption of specie payments, the Gold Standard and the Emergency Currency Law, has sustained the life current of national integrity. As trustee of the National wealth, it has investigated mining regions, surveyed soils, developed waterways, including the Panama Canal, irrigated deserts, conserved waterheds, and husbanded the public lands. Protecting American labor by regulating immigration and by taking at the Custom House, to pay American taxes, foreign capital's advantage from low wages, it has preserved to American industries the home market of eighty millions of the world's greatest consumers and so laid the surest basis for American competition in foreign markets. Uniting capital and labor, thus, in a common prosperity and common source of increased reward, it has created opportunities, improved conditions of employment, brought about a higher standard of living, and more widespread distribution of wealth and well-being, and made expansion moral as well as material.

Intrusted with insular possessions, it has brought them peace and progress, and provided for the extension and protection of American trade, for the National defense, and for the honorable discharge of the responsibilities of world greatness. Maintaining peace at home, with foreign nations and among them, it has given American rights and American opportunities new meaning thru out the nation and throughout the world.

II.—The Party of Progress and Prosperity.

Promising progress and prosperity, it has been politically sincere. It has never had a candidate of a section, prejudice, or class, nor a platform of negation, scheme of repudiation, program of scuttling, or doctrine of despair. It has never lent itself to a demand for revolution, to be followed by reaction and retrogression, it has stood firm for evolution by constant, steady and enduring progress. Finding trusts, giant-borne flourishing under supposed conflict of State and National law, the double prohibition of existence serving but to foster their development, it has never, in an attempt to destroy trusts, withdrawn, in State or Nation, the protection of law from property, but has, through Executive investigation and resort to the courts, resolved the conflict which had silenced law and given trusts existence. It has never proposed to advance American workingmen and American institutions by banishing American industries, and building up those of other lands, and accorded to insult labor with an illusory promise of immunity from law. Yet it passed the Pure Food Law and the Employers' Liability Law secured equal accommodations on railroads, aided agriculture, created the Civil Service, established Free Rural Mail Delivery, reduced foreign postage, and increased pensions. Continuing naturally marked out progress, it pledges of T
